

EXPEDITIONS SOUGHT FOR MAJOR NEW TV SERIES

The Discovery Channel and the UK's leading documentary company are looking for groundbreaking expeditions and exploration projects to capture on film.

What we're looking for:

- * Expeditions that push the boundaries of our scientific, archaeological, historical or ecological understanding.

What we offer:

- * Help with funding.
- * Publicity for the expedition.
- * Proven experience filming on every continent, in every extreme habitat.

If you are planning an expedition – or have an idea for one you've always wanted to get off the ground – then please get in touch:
