

L.A. Theatre Works presents:

The Great Tennessee Monkey Trial

ONE NIGHT ONLY!

Monday, 19 October 2009 • 7:30 p.m.
Newmark Theater, Portland Center for the Performing Arts
1111 SW Broadway (at Main Street).

The contentious 1925 Tennessee versus John Thomas Scopes trial heats up the stage — over the right to teach the theory of evolution in public schools. The official transcripts of the historic battle between science and theology bring contemporary arguments to life in this remarkable drama starring Edward Asner as William Jennings Bryan.

“Radio drama of a special order.”
— L.A. Times

“Neither theatre nor documentary, it succeeds in thrillingly being both.”
— The London Times

Tickets available through PCPA box office 503.248.4335 or Ticketmaster. Ticket Cost: $32.00 includes facility and convenience charge.

This presentation is brought to the Portland community in celebration of the 200th birthday of Charles Darwin by The Geological Society of America and Subaru of America, Inc.
