GSA is soliciting applications and nominations for science co-editors for Geology, Geosphere, and Lithosphere, with four-year terms beginning 1 January 2013. Duties include: ensuring stringent peer review and expeditious processing of manuscripts; making final acceptance or rejection decisions after considering recommendations of reviewers; and maintaining excellent journal content through active solicitation of diverse and definitive manuscripts.

Positions Available

Research interests that would best complement those of the continuing editors include—but are not necessarily limited to—the disciplines listed in parentheses.

Geology, 2 positions (tectonics, deformation, tectonophysics, structural geology, geodynamics, geophysics, Quaternary geology/geomorphology, thermochronology, neotectonics/paleoseismicity, remote sensing/GIS, hydrogeology, economic geology, engineering geology)

Geosphere, 1 position (geodynamics, geophysics, marine geology, tectonics, tectonophysics)

Lithosphere, 1 position (deformation [crustal, lithosphere, petrofabrics]; geodynamics; geophysics [gravity and geoid, marine geophysics]; seismology [crust and lithospheric structure, seismic anisotropy, seismotectonics, tomography]; structural geology; tectonics [flexure and isotasy, geodesy, neotectonics, plate motions]; tectonophysics)

Desirable characteristics for a successful editor include:

- a broad interest and experience in geosciences, including familiarity with new trends;
